

Tailgating Checklist

While there are some fairly elaborate tailgate setups at every game, you really don't need to get too fancy to have a successful party. Whether you keep things simple or go all out, this checklist will help you avoid any game day fumbles so you can focus on the fun. No matter how the game ends, your party will be a winner!

Cooking and Beverage Equipment

- Sturdy paper plates
- Reusable or disposable* forks, knives and spoons
- Reusable or disposable* serving utensils
- Napkins or paper towels
- Tablecloth
- Reusable or disposable* cups
- Big Green Egg Koozies
- Bottle opener/wine opener
- Cooler
- Aluminum foil and plastic wrap
- Plastic containers for leftovers or dirty dishes
- Garbage bags
- Hand sanitizer/hand wipes

Food and Drinks

- Starters
- Main dishes
- Desserts
- Condiments
- Drinks (include plenty of water)
- Ice

Cooking Tools

- MiniMax Big Green Egg
- Big Green Egg charcoal
- Big Green Egg SpeediLight® charcoal starters
- Big Green Egg matches or butane EGGniter
- Grilling utensils
- EGGmitt®
- Folding chairs
- Folding table
- Big Green Egg Canopy

The Ultimate Setup

- Team-themed decorations
- Big Green Egg folding chairs
- Folding table
- Big Green Egg canopy
- Bluetooth speaker
- Big Green Egg bean bag toss game
- Football
- Frisbee

Just in Case

- Ponchos or umbrellas
- First aid kit
- Sunscreen

* For a greener tailgate, opt for reusable cups, plates and silverware. If you use disposable, look for products that are biodegradable or recyclable. Make sure you bring a separate trash bag for recycling cans and water bottles.

